Dear parishioners and friends,

Thanksgiving gives us the opportunity to reflect on the blessings we receive from Almighty God. The idyllic version of that first meal with Native Americans and Europeans smooths over the clashes and conflicts between the two groups. Yet it is an aspiration, a dream, that each generation should hold in their hearts: living in harmony with neighbors and celebrating unity in diversity. The rise in antisemitism is the most recent example of how far we are from that ideal of living in harmony with mutual respect. With grateful hearts, we strive to move away from prejudice and division.

Something positive to do. We are asking for help with our food pantry. A box for donations of non-perishable goods is near the parking lot entrance. Money donations can be made by using the "poor – solidarity" envelope in your packet or by putting "food pantry" on the memo line of your cheque. Thanks in advance for your help with this outreach of our parish.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Sincerely, Father Joseph H. Callahan
