Dear parishioners and friends,

We had a beautiful Holy Week. I am grateful to all who collaborated in one way or another to make the celebrations of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and Easter Sunday so prayerful, dignified, spiritual, and prayerful. Thanks also for your generous contributions.

A few takeaways come to mind. The crowd for the live Stations of the Cross was bigger than ever. It included many small children who made their way to the front of the crowd at each station to hear and see the station presented. They truly were attentive and engaged. Some of the scenes are rather violent. Many tears were shed by the folks in the crowd. I encouraged the parents to talk to their children about Jesus' passion and death and what it means for us. This is how our rich faith tradition is handed on to the next generation.

Next, our young adults that participated in the choir for all the celebrations. Bright, educated, committed bilingual children of immigrants. They truly are the future of our parish and of the church in this country. It was an emotional moment as they were presented at the end of the Easter Vigil. Their parents deserve tremendous credit for forming their children in the faith. Their parents deserve to be, as I am extremely proud!

And finally, the celebration of Hunter Hick's Confirmation and First Communion added to the profound celebration at the Easter Vigil. Many Latinos made this comment to me at Easter morning Mass. Congratulations, Hunter!

Sincerely, Father Joseph H. Callahan

MINISTERIO HISPANO

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Vivimos una linda semana santa. ¡Mil gracias a todos por su colaboración y asistencia. Me alegra que algunas nuevas personas participaron en el via crucis en vivo. Y que tanta gente vino a las celebraciones de jueves, viernes, sábado y domingo. Espero que Dios bendiga abundantemente a cada quien, a nuestras familias, y la parroquia.

Llevemos en nuestras oraciones nuestro querido Papa Francisco que ha ido a la pascua eterna. Que signo mas bonito que falleció el lunes de la pascua—después de estar con la gente domingo de resurrección. Como se preocupó por los pobres, marginados, inmigrantes, refugiados ... Que en paz descanse.

Atentamente en Cristo,

Pbro. Joseph H. Callahan
