Dear parishioners and friends,

St. Francis of Assisi said that a Christian must constantly preach, and, if necessary, use words. From the moment he stepped out on the balcony overlooking St. Peter's square to be presented to the world, to the details of his funeral, the Holy Father put this maxim of the saint whose name and patronage he chose into practice.

His greeting that night when he was presented for the first time abandoned all protocol. "Brothers and Sisters, Good Evening!" And then his request for a few moments of silence as he asked the crowd to pray for him, and bowed his head so humbly brought tears to eyes. His worn, black shoes were visible in the coffin representing hard work, simplicity, and humility of a pastor who never abandoned his flock. The example of his life, his writings, and teachings will continue to inspire and guide the church and the world.

Please keep our candidates for the sacrament of confirmation in prayer. They will be confirmed by Abbot Gary Hoover, OSB at Holy Spirit Parish, Garfield Heights Wednesday, May 7 at 7:00 PM. We congratulate them, their families, sponsors and catechists Sister Charlotte and Irma Gonzalez.

I am grateful to all who made a pledge to Catholic Charities this year. We have made the goal set for us for pledges. I continue to be inspired by the generous response of this parish community to this appeal.

Sincerely, Father Joseph H. Callahan

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Sentimos un gran vacío con la muerte del papa Francisco. A la vez, sentimos mucha gratitud al todo poderoso por bendecir nuestra Iglesia y el mundo con el ejemplo de su vida. Papa Francisco enseñaba y predicaba tanto con palabras, predicaciones, discursos, como con el ejemplo de su vida. Su sencillez, su humildad, su preocupación por los pobres, por la justicia, y por la paz marcaron su vida y su ministerio. Jamás olvidaremos a nuestro querido Francisco quien, desde el cielo, nos acompaña.

Felicidades a los jóvenes que van a ser confirmados el miércoles, 7 de mayo en la parroquia "Holy Spirit", Garfield Heights. Felicidades a sus familias, padrinos y la Hna. Charlotte e Irma González por prepararles.

Atentamente en Cristo, Pbro. Joseph H. Callahan
