Dear parishioners and friends,

Today we celebrate the feast of the Most Holy Trinity. The picture on the cover of the bulletin is of a stole made by sisters in Ireland. It was an ordination gift from a priest mentor/friend and is one of the few liturgical items I own and cherish. An abstract depiction of the trinity through shape and color, it invites us to appreciate the mystery of the trinity – three distinct persons in one God. Take a moment to contemplate the design. Enter the mystery without having a concrete explanation. Allow it to touch your heart.

I never cease to get emotional, even as recent as last Sunday, when young parents present their child, just learning to speak, and having learned the “sign of the cross” as one of their first communications. I cannot congratulate and salute young parents that nurture their children’s faith from the first moments of life. Thank God for the people who formed us in the faith, beginning with such simple, basic, and profound teachings. Today, let’s strive to be more intentional, more thoughtful each time we make the sign of the cross. What a brief, yet profound prayer and proclamation of the trinity. We begin and end each day, each meal, each trip, each Mass, etc. “in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit ...

This celebration comes after the Easter season and the great feast of Pentecost. The trinity summarizes the great historic events of our faith and captures the profound mystery of God that embraces and engulfs us. Next Sunday, we celebrate the feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ – Corpus Christi. How rich is our Catholic faith!

Sincerely, Father Joseph H. Callahan

MINISTERIO HISPANO

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Hoy celebramos la Santísima Trinidad. Tan gran misterio de nuestro Dios que no podemos explicarlo, sino apreciarlo y estar inspirados de la presencia de Dios manifestada en las tres distintas personas de la Santísima Trinidad.

Me inspira los jóvenes padres de familia que, al iniciar de hablar un chiquito, le enseñen como persignarse. Démosle gracias a Dios por las personas que nos formaron en la fe.

El próximo domingo—Corpus, con la procesión.

Atentamente en Cristo, Pbro. Joseph H. Callahan

CORPUS CHRISTI el próximo domingo. Procesión con el Santísimo después de la santa misa. Invitados especiales: niños quienes celebraron primera comunión en el mes de mayo.
