Dear parishioners and friends,

Please take a moment to notice the parish grounds. I am most grateful to parishioner Ernesto Hernández, owner of Future Landscaping and Guadalupe Murillo of Royal Landscaping for bring their crews – more parishioners to “shape-up” our yard. I cannot tell you how many people comment about how well kept the grounds are. Of course, the landscapers are among a long list of parishioners that volunteer here. Cleaning, maintenance projects, grant writing, updating the parish website, teaching religion, let alone the liturgical ministers, including the music ministry. Thank you to everyone that pitches in to make everything here run smoothy here!

Saturday is our parish picnic. Once again, it will be held on the grounds of St. Monica Parish in Garfield Heights. Details are noted in this bulletin. The picnic provides us with an opportunity to come together as a community, share a meal, games for the children and young at heart, and enjoy each other’s presence. It is not a fundraiser. Bring a dish to share and enjoy! This is an opportunity to get to know fellow parishioners. And, in our unique parish, cross cultural lines, appreciate other customs, and recognize and celebrate what unites us – not only our humanity, but our Catholic Christian faith. Pray for good weather!

Sincerely, Father Joseph H. Callahan
