Dear parishioners and friends,

This weekend we welcome Brother Thomas Taylor, O.S.A. for the annual mission appeal. Brother Tom belongs to the Midwest Province of the Augustinians. They have a large missionary presence in Northern Peru. Responding to the underdevelopment and poverty of the region, the friars lead a variety of ministries across spiritual, educational, health, and social works.

The Augustinians have a reputation of being impassioned educators. In 2013, they opened a grade school Colegio San Augustin in Trujillo, Peru. They educate students in the Augustinian tradition with the core values of Truth, Unity, and Love. Further expanding the educational footprint in the region, the Augustinians administer Colegio Señor de los Milagros in Pacasmayo and Colegio Santisima Cruz.

Pope Leo XIV belongs to the Augustinian community. He spent nearly 20 years serving in the mission in Peru. Please be generous in supporting their projects to fund scholarships for students, human development capital for teachers and staff in Augustinian schools, infrastructure projects (school chapel, classrooms, etc.), formation and vocation, and social projects like food pantries.

There is no envelope for this collection. Please make your cheque out to the parish and write "missionary" on the "For" line or put cash in an envelope with your name on it, or donate online.

THANKS for your generosity!

Sincerely, Father Joseph H. Callahan
