Dear parishioners and friends,

In his first letter to the Corinthians (12:26), Saint Paul uses the beautiful image of the human body applied to the church, the 'body of Christ' in the world. And if one part of the body suffers, he says, the whole body suffers. We remain in solidarity with the parishioners of Annunciation Parish in Minneapolis as they try to move on from the tragic, senseless attack during the opening school Mass; the death of two beautiful children, and countless injured physically and psychologically.

Pope Leo, in his comments at noon last Sunday expressed solidarity with those members of the church saying: Our prayers for the victims of the tragic shooting during a school Mass in the American State of Minnesota include the countless children killed and injured every day around the world. Let us plead God to stop the pandemic of arms, large and small, which infects our world. May our Mother Mary, the Queen of Peace, help us to fulfil the prophecy of Isaiah: "They shall beat their swords into ploughshares and their spears into pruning hooks" (Is 2:4). (Vatican website).

The Holy Father switched to the English language for that part of a larger discourse. He wants the suffering part of the body to hear his concern. And he wanted to be clear about the urgent need to do something about the "pandemic of arms". Note that the prophet Isaiah did not call for reducing arms but eliminating them and converting them into tools to cultivate food.

We pray for a change of heart of politicians and the wealthy firearms industry to work toward urgent, sensible, and practical control of guns.

Sincerely, Father Joseph H. Callahan
