Dear parishioners and friends,

Last Saturday, we initiated the year of formation of children with a meeting of their parents. A great sign of a vibrant parish is the quantity of Baptisms, First Communions, and Confirmations that are celebrated each year. The very old sacramental books of this parish show the history of hundreds of celebrations of these sacraments each year. While we are not close to those numbers, we are healthy. Nothing makes me happier than to see the many young couples faithfully bringing their children to church and to catechism classes. These parents put into practice the promise they made to form their children in the faith the day that they presented their children for Baptism.

After Mass last Sunday, a young man asked to have his rosary blessed. Mind you, he could be on the cover of an advertisement for gym membership. He could probably pick me up with two fingers! We said a prayer, the blessing of the rosary and of him. "You have a good mother who taught you the faith" I said. "Yes, father, a lot a lot a lot." "She must be very proud of her son who honors her by cultivating his faith" I responded. He had to hide his emotional response ... "Pray for me," I said. "Believe me, I will" he promised. What a privilege it is for parents to form their children in the faith.

Returning to historical roots, next Saturday is the 102nd Saint Wenceslaus Day. All are invited to the 4:00 PM Mass for this celebration. For many years, Bishop Gries presided at this liturgy. He has informed us that due to mobility issues he will not be able to be here. But it is important that we gather to continue this tradition.

Sincerely, Father Joseph H. Callahan
