Dear parishioners and friends,

Today, the feast of Christ the King, is the last Sunday of the liturgical year. The feast, instituted one hundred years ago by Pope Pius XI, celebrates Jesus Christ's kingship over all creation and was created to counter rising secularism and atheism. It reminds us that our ultimate allegiance belongs to Christ, not to any earthly ruler, and calls for living out our faith through acts of love and service to others. Since it is the end of the church year, the scripture readings invite us to think about the sobering theme of the end-times when Christ's kingship will be fully revealed.

And the new liturgical year begins with the first Sunday of Advent, next Sunday. The reflection books for the Advent and Christmas seasons are available at the parking lot exit of the church. The booklet offers a practical discipline of dedicating a few moments each day to prayer and reflection. Consider making a good confession before Christmas. Besides Saturdays from 3:00 – 3:30 PM here, several priests will be available for individual confession Monday, 1 December at 7:00 PM at St. John Nepomucene parish (East 49th and Fleet).

Mass Thanksgiving Day, this Thursday, will be at 9:00 AM. The Giving Tree is up. Please place gift cards in the box near the baptismal font. Also, please consider a donation to our Solidarity account for the purchase of food for our food pantry. Thank you!

Sincerely, Father Joseph H. Callahan
